Business travel & hotel stays

Query for you

What & why

What this is	Every work trip your team took — flights, trains, taxis, intercity cabs, and nights in hotels.
What we need	One row per journey: date, from, to, mode, cabin class for flights, and whether it was one-way or return. For hotels: city and number of room-nights.
Where to find it	Easiest is your travel agency's annual booking report — ask for a full-year MIS in Excel. Otherwise the travel and conveyance reimbursement ledger.
Who usually has it	HR / Admin / your travel desk
Effort	~1 hr · Easy

Why this matters for you
Very visible internally and one of the fastest things to cut — usually the first category a leadership team acts on.

Do we include a flight that was cancelled and refunded?

Deepwoods Team (Rohan Mehta) 14 Aug 2026, 5:40 pm DW

No — only trips actually taken. Leave cancelled/refunded bookings out.

We don't track cabin class for older bookings — is that a problem?
